2017 ASIAN HERITAGE FESTIVAL DRAWS A CROWD

The Social Services Asian Forum (SSAF), a member of SSA's Multi-Cultural Advisory Committee (MCAC), recently welcomed approximately 370 guests to the annual 2017 Asian Heritage Festival at the Seafood Palace Restaurant in Westminster. Staying true to its purpose of promoting diversity in Asian cultural heritage amongst SSA employees, there were guests from all regions and different cultural backgrounds at the event.

SPANISH SPEAKING WORKERS FORUM CELEBRATES DIA DE LOS MUERTOS

A celebration reception for 'Dia De Los Muertos' took place on November 2, 2017 at SSA's Eckhoff building in Orange. Dia De Los Muertos, or Day of the Dead, is a Mexican holiday that is celebrated throughout Mexico. Family and friends gather to pray for and remember those who are no longer living. The marigold is the traditional flower used to honor those that have passed away. SSA's Spanish

Speakers Workers Forum (SSWF), a member of SSA's Multi-Cultural

Advisory Committee (MCAC), celebrated this event with food, music, and several beautifully made altars in honor of the dead. For more information on how you can become a member of the SSWF or other MCAC groups, please visit the MCAC SharePoint page.

SSA SPOTLIGHT: EXCELLENCE IN SERVICE

This month's Spotlight team is the Foster Youth Pregnancy Prevention Project Coordination Team.

QUESTION: What single intervention can yield all of the following outcomes?

- Improved mobility from poverty
- Improved educational attainment outcomes
- Improved employment outcomes
- Improved housing security outcomes
- Improved socio-economic security
- Improved life outcomes for future generations
- Yield a six-fold return on investment

Answer: Delay family formation until ready.

Although mistimed pregnancy among youth in general has been on a decline, youth in foster care continue to experience heightened rates of early pregnancy and next-generation child protection involvement. In fact, 52% of California foster youth become pregnant at least once by age 19 and 33% of Orange County's youth in foster care give birth at least once by their 21st birthday.

California extended the time a youth can be in foster care in 2012 from age 18 to 21, and Orange County saw this as an important opportunity to significantly impact two-generational life outcomes. In December 2014, SSA joined four other California counties (Butte, Los Angeles, Napa, and Santa Clara) in a multi-year partnership with John Burton Advocates for Youth, The National Campaign to Prevent Teen & Unplanned Pregnancy, and the American Public Human Services Association to chart this course. To do so, SSA assembled the Foster Youth Pregnancy Prevention Project Coordination Team which convened a public-private cross-sector collaborative to assume the role of the Foster Youth Pregnancy Prevention Steering Committee, and coordinated closely with SSA Research and Training & Career Development. Together, a common course was charted and clarity continues to be identified on the following points:

- This is a long-term commitment
- Change happens incrementally
- Partnerships are essential
- Pregnancy prevention is more than just birth control and healthy sexual development, that it is about supporting youth in anchoring a future outlook to inform life decisions
- Developing, strengthening and sustaining rich human connectedness is an essential element of all services targeting pregnancy prevention
- This is urgent work affecting generational life trajectories

Along the way, the Project Coordination Team developed new tools and acquired learnings which we shared through national print, internet, conferences, and webinar outlets; and which was shared with the California Department of Social Services to produce tools including a web site to house them for other counties. The Project Coordination Team also teamed with The National Campaign to Prevent Teen & Unplanned Pregnancy to produce new tools for trusted adults and to engage Orange County Juvenile Dependency Court judges in pregnancy prevention efforts.

Congratulations to the Foster Youth Pregnancy Prevention Project Coordination Team for all of the great work you do and for being recognized as the SSA Spotlight: Excellence in Service team for November 2017!

SSA EMPLOYEES ASSIST FAMILIES AFTER HURRICANE HARVEY

Family Self-Sufficiency Intake Employment and Eligibility Specialist (IEES) Maritza Medina and Assistance Programs Eligibility Technician (ET) Brian Byers recently supported efforts to assist families in Houston, Texas after Hurricane Harvey devastated the area in late August 2017. Maritza is a trained volunteer and received her Children in Disaster Services certification in 2015 to work directly with children in shelter environments. Brian is a Disaster Survivor Assistance (DSA) Specialist with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

In the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey, Maritza was notified of the need for support and immediately responded to help the survivors of this natural disaster. Her primary responsibility was to provide support to children in shelters by reading to them, playing with them, and comforting them while their parents were busy with filling out paperwork and trying to recoup the possessions they had lost.

Upon arriving to his first duty station in Corpus Christi, Texas, Brian was immediately deployed to work in the North Houston area due to the significant need in that community. As a DSA, Brian was tasked with canvassing neighborhoods, connecting and registering survivors for FEMA assistance, reporting neighborhood conditions to FEMA headquarters, and answering assistance questions.

Both Maritza and Brian found the experience difficult because of the extreme circumstances, but it was also rewarding as well. "I met thousands of survivors, drove thousands of miles, worked 80 hour weeks, stayed weeks in tents, and slept in my rental car. I spoke with survivors that lost everything, yet had a smile on their face because they're alive and will rebuild," said Brian. Maritza added, "This was such a valuable experience for me. I got to meet and work with wonderful, knowledgeable, and kind people. I believe that donating my work hours to help people in need is not a waste; it is such a rewarding feeling and such a great satisfaction that I am ready for my next volunteering job."

SSA commends both Maritza and Brian for supporting the efforts of emergency personnel and giving their time to assist families in need during such a difficult situation. Neither of them hesitated to assist when called upon. It is employees like this that truly demonstrate the Agency's mission of delivering quality services that are accessible and responsive to the community, encourage personal responsibility, strengthen individuals, preserve families, and protect vulnerable adults and children. Thank you Maritza and Brian!

COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS PROCLAIM NOVEMBER AS ADOPTION AWARENESS MONTH

On November 14, 2017, the Orange County Board of Supervisors presented a Board Resolution to recognize Adoption Awareness Month. Resource parent Erin Kim was present during the recognition and participated in the presentation for her family's significant contributions to support and advocate for adoptive families in Orange County. Currently, national attention is being paid to the needs of the thousands of older youth, ages 15-18, who face the challenges of aging out of foster care and are beginning their independent, young adult lives. For all children and youth, having permanent, loving adult connections is critical to lifelong development, achievement and well-being. ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES SIMULATION TRAINING

On October 13, 2017, SSA Adult Protective Services (APS) and Training & Career Development (TCD) launched the first ever APS simulation training in California. This APS simulation training culminated the five-week induction training for ten staff. APS borrowed the Orange County Sheriff-Coroner Department's training facility in Santa Ana for a day to simulate and reenact real-life APS home call situations. The real-life scenarios were created and scripted by APS Senior Social Services Supervisors and TCD trainers to resemble APS unannounced home calls. APS also called upon some SSA retirees to come back and be actors in these scenarios. After each scenario, the learner was provided concrete feedback from their peers and trainers on ways to enhance their social work skills. At the end of the day, both the learners and actors agreed that the simulation training experience provided real-life situations in a safe training environment. APS will continue to offer simulation training in their future induction training sessions, and neighboring counties are eager to come see this innovative way of training APS staff.

THE 33rd ANNUAL FOSTER FAMILY PICNIC

The 33rd Annual Foster Family Picnic was held on September 24th in Garden Grove. The primary sponsor of the picnic was LA CASA, the support auxiliary for Orangewood Children and Family Center. The Foster Care Auxiliary of Orange County, who organized the picnic, is a nonprofit whose primary focus is to help Orange County families with foster and adopted children. Staff from Children and Family Services and Foster Care Eligibility volunteered at the picnic; it was a huge success with 235 children in attendance.

ORANGEWOOD STAFF CREATES PING PONG TOURNAMENT FOR STAFF AND CHILDREN

By Dustin Gerard, Group Counselor II, Children and Family Services

The First Annual Orangewood Winner Take All Ping Pong Classic began when a few cottages at Orangewood Children and Family Center (OCFC) were provided ping pong tables from OCFC's Recreation Unit. Many of the children in the Intermediate Boys (IB) Cottage immediately took a liking to playing and began to form stronger, more respectful relationships with their peers and staff.

Word of the tournament quickly spread, and other cottages began to join the IB cottage for ping pong matches. Not only do the kids enjoy it, but ping pong was bringing both the children and staff closer together. Popularity grew as ping pong offers an opportunity for healthy socialization and interaction between peers, and fun competition between staff.

It was through this common interest that the tournament was born. Staff from all cottages and units at OCFC expressed excitement in anticipation of big match-ups. Some staff even converted conference tables into ping pong practice space to train, and some of the children took initiative to act as referees and score keepers. All involved have experienced the opportunity to meet children and staff and were able to build good rapport and new relationships. The tournament has taken a life of its own and is currently still going strong with several fierce competitors vying for the title of Champion. There can only be one....until next year.

TWO SSA DIVISIONS COLLABORATE TO SERVE OUR COMMUNITY

By David Harper, Senior Social Services Supervisor, Children and Family Services

"My Eligibility Worker was amazing. They returned my call right away and the problem had already been fixed."

"My Eligibility Technician (ET) was on vacation, but this other worker dropped everything to help me."

"I always get really great customer service" - A small sampling of quotes from resource families

The Foster Care Eligibility (FCE) program is a section of the Family Self-Sufficiency & Adult Services (FSS & AS) division embedded within the Children and Family Services (CFS) division. FCE's Eligibility Technicians (ETs) are uniquely tasked with delivering financial support to CFS foster caregivers and out-of-home placements who provide for the abused and neglected youth of Orange County. In short, FCE and CFS collaborate to help the caregivers who, in turn, help the kids.

"When I have an urgent issue with a medical placement, I can just walk downstairs and they give me their full attention to solve it." – Mary Ewart, CFS Social Worker

Administrative Manager II Loan English described the challenge of interfacing with multiple CFS programs. "We are two different cultures, two different priorities. We can't expect CFS and FSS & AS to fully understand each other, but we are dependent on each other." Loan identified the importance of communication and cooperation between the programs and with the endorsement of previous FSS Director Nathan Nishimoto and previous CFS Director Gary Taylor, the first quarterly FCE/CFS Collaboration Committee was launched in 2015 to strengthen their partnership and encourage mutual accountability between divisions.

"As separate SSA divisions, we speak different languages, so it takes effort on both our parts to communicate. It is clear FCE sees us as their customers, and they are committed to deliver customer satisfaction. They look to resolve and find solutions for our caregivers. They understand the impact their role has on families and children. This is so different from just crunching numbers- this is about helping kids." – Trisha Schwenn, CFS Program Manager

The job of navigating the intricate complexities of funding CFS placements has grown exponentially due to new legislation and evolving circumstances, but FCE's resolve to provide quality support remains steadfast. The FCE/CFS Collaboration Committee continues to operate at full force. Loan feels that cohesion and mutual respect are at an all-time high between the two programs. "We have different roles but the same goal, and we're aligned to help caregivers regardless of which division we're in."

FCE's invaluable contribution to CFS has not gone unnoticed. In August 2016, CFS hosted a continental breakfast for FCE to celebrate Eligibility Professionals Recognition Month. In August 2017, it was an afternoon dessert bar. These are tokens of gratitude to FCE from CFS.

FCE extends their uncompromising customer service to foster children, caregivers, social workers and CFS with an understanding that they are all intricately woven together. In doing so, FCE creates a bridge between two divisions as one Agency, moving forward together, serving our community.

OPERATION SANTA CLAUS AND SENIOR SANTA & FRIENDS NEED YOUR HELP

Operation Santa Claus (OSC) and Senior Santa & Friends (SSF) annual gift drive began in early November and ends December 22, 2017. What began as a small effort to meet the needs of a handful of children in 1962 has become a major event for the community. Last year, Operation Santa Claus distributed over 39,000 toys/gifts and Senior Santa & Friends distributed almost 6,500 gifts. These gifts brought joy and a message of hope to our most vulnerable children and seniors in Orange County who might otherwise have gone without. Donation bins have been placed in many County buildings including every County Library throughout Orange County. Look for the official Operation Santa Claus and Senior Santa & Friends donation bins with our new logos below.

Congratulations to SSW Lisa Powers who was recognized as the CFS Employee of the Month for October. Here are some examples of Lisa’s selfless work:

“Lisa makes herself aware of how her colleagues are doing and will volunteer to help if she perceives a problem. When another social worker received a very complex medical referral involving a baby, Lisa became aware of the situation and enlisted the help of one of our Social Workers. A warrant was eventually needed on the case and the worker received an Immediate referral while processing the warrant. Lisa took the initiative and had the Immediate referral reassigned to her.

She is a phenomenal social worker, strategist and mentor! She is honest, hard working, perceptive and knowledgeable. Lisa is always there to guide, listen, and help manage. She embodies the spirit of Emergency Response and remains critical to the development and growth of new AND seasoned staff. She is ALWAYS there to help and never makes you feel bad or stupid if you don’t know something.”
